A Fun, Standalone BDSM Romance with No Cliffhanger

Dirk Hawkins is the last of the huge motion picture moguls at the peak of his career. Aged now but still wielding phenomenal power in the industry he takes a young man under his wing and tutors him. When he makes Hal Parkinson a producer his young protégé brings in his next three movies on budget and on time rewarding the aged mogul's trust for his faith in him. But then the up and coming director crosses the line completely leaving his mentor no option than to fire him and excommunicate him from Tinsel Town completely. Confused and unemployable the young man has no choice but to begin his own studio in opposition to the mighty movie magnate. With more twists and turns than the Indianapolis 500, the plot winds and curves around the public outrage of the mogul, to the love and genuine friendship he has for the boy privately....
