One night of passion ruined more than just a friendship. Dani had made a mistake. Not only had she fallen in love with one of her best friends, but she'd given into that passion. One night... she'd had one night. Only to wake to the certain knowledge that he thought it was a mistake. The biggest mistake of his life. So she'd run. He'd fallen asleep with her in his arms... only to wake up alone. No word, no note, not even a goodbye. So he'd gotten on a plane and headed off to boot-camp... then war. Returning home battered and bruised, Jason Bradford had lost the carefree innocence of his youth. He'd set aside childhood fantasy's including dreams of Danielle Foster. Now, after five long years, Dani was coming home.

The years had been good to her. She was sexy, sassy and bolder than ever. Sarcasm and anger weren't enough to mask the unadulterated desire between the two. Neither could it stop the erotic dreams. But five years is a long time. Can these two build on the friendship they had in the past, or will misunderstandings and bitter anger outweigh their desire?
