Showtime Kids K. Rucker

Showtime Kids: This is a directory for children, teens, and young adult actors, models, and entertainers. This directory will give step by step informative information in becoming a film and television star. There is a strong need for child entertainment resources availability, mainly acting. There are thousands of children in the acting industry today with not enough resources to explore their talent. There are many agents, but few good ones. My directory will supply parents, schools, and agents with the resources needed to create a working child actor.
