A Walk Through the Bible Jacob Moses Alexander

"A Walk Through the Bible" took nine years to write. This book gives a running view of the Bible in a moment of time. It follows the thread of God's people (who follow His commandments) from the remnants of the Great Flood (Noah and his family), on through Abraham, Moses, Jacob (Israel) and David to Jesus Christ and his disciples in the New Testament. The House of Israel merges into the House of David, and finally into the House of the Lord. The Book's cover image with the star of David within the bright and morning star of Jesus Christ symbolizes the House of David, the remnant of the House of Israel preserved by God forever. This House includes Jews, Christians and Gentiles (those who are neither Jew nor Christian). This book answers the questions: Who was Elias? Who was Paul that he should write fourteen of the books in the New Testament? Are we in the Latter Days? See how many of your questions this book answers in a moment of time!
