I wrote and published MAD BOYS in 1993. It won a prize for excellence by the New Hampshire Writers Project. I think it's still relevant. I asked myself what would happen if Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer were let loose in the 1990s. That was the starting point. The theme of virtual reality in the book has hit home now almost two decades later though not exactly in the way I envisioned it. I think all boys are a little crazy growing up. It's a wonder any of us make it to adulthood. The narrator in this book, Web Clements, a.k.a. Langdon Webster, is the narrator of I LOVE U, also on the Kindle. -- Ernest Hebert
