Here is a chance to Shakespeare's plays as they were first published. The RawShakespeare editions present the earliest published editions of Shakespeare's plays in a modern, readable type with the minimum of editorial interference. This edition is based on the First Folio setting of the play which was published in 1623. The typography of the period has been updated for certain letters (so that s's look like s's and not f's and the substitutions of j for i and u for v and vice versa have been updated to modern usages in a handy pocket edition.
