A Complete Story With NO CLIFFHANGER**

Tynice Johnson was a curvy, confident, and independent woman, who was also one of the most well respected lawyers in the Seattle area. But she wasn't always like that, and growing up she had her share of difficulties.

Adrian West had his fair share of problems growing up too. But even though they were total opposites, they bonded over the drama they shared as teenagers and became best friends. But after a terrible accident leaves Tynice's family in shambles, she is forced to move away and never see Adrian again.

Fast forward 16 years later and they are both in their 30s, and successful in their respective careers. Due to a case taking her back across the country to the town she grew up in, Tynice meets the man who was always there for her so many years ago.

This starts a new journey for them as they realize there is so much more to their relationship than they ever imagined, rekindling a flame that never existed before. But with the pressure of Tynice's court drama heating up, their lives get much more complicated with murder, jealousy, loyalty, and family all taking part of the roller-coaster they call love.
