The Real Face of Child Support: Focusing on What Matters Most DeAngella Lockett

The Real Face of Child Support takes a candid look at the conflict that exists in relationships over the dynamics of child support. With real life situations, the author spells out some radical solutions and suggestions focused on making the best interactions between a child's parents possible. Anything but timid, this book is a must have for any person that finds themselves in the child support system either willingly or reluctantly. The Real Face of Child Support is laced with compassion and honesty, while it endeavors to be a mediator for respect and accountability. Every line is designed to challenge parents to take a look at how they can create a more harmonious and caring atmosphere, so that their child will get the best of both parents in the long run, remembering at all times that their child is the real face of child support.
