BOOK DESCRIPTION: Grace Webber had a perfect life. She was beautiful, popular and a cheerleader. Nothing could go wrong, or so she thought. “Fortuna thou art Fated. Thy journey has begun, the power of three placed into one.

Tread careful, choose wisely, though cannot be free, until journey’s end when one becomes three.” Recovering from a tragic accident Grace is bestowed with powers of the Fates. Whenever she touches someone she can see their future, and the choices that will lead them to their deaths. Withdrawing from interaction with her family and friends Grace struggles to find a way to live in a world that she no longer understands. One day she accidentally makes contact with Noah Rosenberg, and the vision she sees scares her more than anything. As much as she tries to avoid him, their destiny continues to pull them together, an attraction that turns to romance. Together Noah and Grace find a way for her to live a normal life, controlling her powers and finding a way to discover who the other two Fates are. The question is can she do it? Can she keep herself safe from the dark origins of her powers or fall prey to an ancient evil?
