A Brief Introduction to the Bible William W. Wells

"A Brief Introduction to the Bible" orients new readers to the Bible, an old and often complex book. The first two chapters explain briefly how the Bible came to be written and how contemporary scholars interpret the book. The third and fourth chapters offer a basic introduction to the history, literature and ideas contained in the Old Testament and the New Testament - the two main sections of the Bible. Each chapter provides a brief bibliography to aid readers in moving deeper.
