In the Hamptons you never know what you will find at the beach. But when a disembodied, sneaker-clad foot washes up in Montauk the residents are appropriately freaked out. With the help of his new partner, Maria Salazar, Detective Jericho is once again on the case and while dealing with the tensions between the immigrant and Latino community and wealthy Hamptons home owners, he has to figure out if they have a serial killer on their hands.

This intricate and compelling thriller goes beyond the glitzy surface of the Hamptons to explore the complex underbelly of a changing community.
