No Longer Strangers - Amy Boucher Pye

In November, join Amy Boucher Pye in exploring the theme of how we have made ourselves strangers in a foreign land. Through following the hero of our faith Abraham, we will look at how, despite our disobedience, the Lord never tires of welcoming us home. We'll move from the Garden of Eden in Genesis to the city of God in Revelation, as we come back again and again to our central identity – daughters and heirs of the King.

Home from Home - Deborah Jenkins

As we approach Christmas, Deborah Jenkins discovers that our place of security, our dwelling place, is not so much a physical thing but a spiritual and mental choice each day of our lives. Physical doors can be locked and physical homes can be closed against us, but if we look to God with faith, He will always accept us for His son's sake. He is our ultimate refuge.
