David Hollow and the Crown of Light (David Hollow Trilogy Book 3) Ryan Christensen

“You are meant for great things.” But greatness comes at a cost. These words have haunted David Hollow. Because their implication is the result of a life not his own, but a prophecy concocted by the Crown of Light. In an effort to save all those he loves, David has left his friends and parents to seek the King and the Crown he stole in the Northern Arc, a world just north of the mountains overrun by the enemies of the Court. David Hollow and the Crown of Light is the thrilling conclusion to a trilogy that has taken boys into the wilderness and set guns in their hands. Like ABC's LOST and Stephen King's Dark Tower, you will be witness to different times and worlds, to pasts and futures, all culminating in a confrontation that could mean the end of the universe or the birth of a world.
