Duncan MacGreggor knew that winning the lottery would change his life He just didn't know he would be trying to survive a zombie apocalypse. Duncan showed up for his last day at work to turn in his keys and say farewell to his colleagues. He planned to meet up with his brothers for a couple of beers and then head home and start a new life in luxury. That was before the zombies came. Manhattan is sealed off. Duncan's wife and children are on Long Island. He and small party of others must escape the outbreak and quarantine zone to reunite with his family and see to their survival. The zombies are not the only threat to their existence, the world is becoming a free for all. Is anyplace safe?
