Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail | Summary & Analysis

Wild: From Lost to Found on the Pacific Crest Trail by Cheryl Strayed is a memoir that depicts the adventures of a single woman on the Pacific Crest Trail after a series of devastating personal losses. It was in 1995, and after four years of the death of her mother and her recent divorce that led her on this adventure. Cheryl will backpack into the wilderness and leave herself unprepared for the journey that lays ahead. We will go over a detailed chapter by chapter summary of her adventures and follow up with a brief analysis. Cheryl Strayed has written for numerous publications including the New York Times, The Washington Post Magazine, Salon, Vogue and The Sun. She has an Education from multiple universities including University of Minnesota and Syracuse University.

Wild is a New York Times bestselling memoir and was selected for Oprah's Book Club. It has also been adapted as a movie starring Reese Witherspoon.
